Good Afternoon

Welcome to back to The Hawthorns for today's Essex Senior League fixture, this afternoon we entertain Sporting Bengal United Football Club. We extend a very warm welcome to their Players, Staff and Supporters who have made the trip to be with us.

Sporting Bengal arrive here today 4th in the League, with 12 points from 7 games played. 3 wins, 3 draws and 1 loss. The most recent result for Sporting Bengal was a 1-1 home draw to West Essex in the week.

The Rovers suffered a 5-2 away defeat after a trip to the seaside to face FC Clacton on Tuesday evening. Stanway currently sit 19th in the league with 1 point from 5 games played - 1 draw, and 4 defeats. No doubt we will be in for a good battle between top and bottom of the table this afternoon.

Don't forget, the Rovers are next at home Tuesday evening as we welcome 18th placed Ilford to the Hawthorns, as usual it's a 19:45 kick-off.

Please do let us know your thoughts on the online programme. If you have an article or news for inclusion in the matchday programme please do get in contact via email at liam@lw-photo.co.uk. All content and suggestions will be gratefully received

Enjoy the game and Up The Rovers!

TODAY'S GUESTS

SPORTING BENGAL

The club was formed in 1996 to encourage Asian football in London. They initially played in the London Intermediate League until they were granted senior status in 2003 by the London Football Association, following a tour to Bangladesh, where they played the Bangladesh national team.[1] In the same year, Sporting Bengal joined the Kent League. In 2005, they were one of the first Asian teams to play in the FA Cup, along with London APSA of the Essex Senior League, whose roots are in the neighbouring borough of Newham.

The Sporting Bengal set-up is unusual in that it is operated by the Bangladesh Football Association (UK) and players are selected from (and retain their affiliation with) the Sunday league clubs which are affiliated to that organisation. In 2011 the club signed up ex Wycombe Wanderers and Wimbledon striker Shahed Ahmed. They were also unusual in being the only Kent League club to play their home matches north of the River Thames, outside the traditional borders of Kent.

In the earlier years most of their players would chew gua and paan during games until the FA banned a number of players from doing so.

In 2010, Sporting Bengal was targeted by the Bangladesh Football Federation for its players to represent the Bangladesh national squad. Sadiq Sarwar and Shahed Ahmed were selected to represent their country at the 2010 South Asian Games.

The club's best performance in the league came in 2018/19 when they finished 8th. The best run in the FA Cup came in 2016/17 when they reached the 1st Qualifying Round, while the 3rd Round of the FA Vase was reached in 2011/12. The club reached the Final of the League Challenge Cup in 2013/14 but were unable to prevent Great Woking Rovers completing a League and Challenge Cup double.

THE UNTOLD GAME

HIS NAME IS CARLOVICH

Diego Maradona was not known for his modesty. The diminutive Argentinian had the biggest presence in football, and won just about everything. So when he told a player that had spent the majority of his career in the Argentine Second Division, had never played for Argentina, and had never left the country, that 'you were better than me', it caused quite a stir. But Tomas Carlovich was not your average Second Division player, and El Trinche certainly didn't suffer from a lack of opportunity.

Carlovich was born in Rosario in 1946, and spent the majority of his life there. He never liked to be far from his parents' home, his favourite bar, or his adoring fans. What little footage there is of him looks like a cross between Andrea Pirlo and Mick Jagger; six feet tall, gangly, with flowing hair and an insouciance on the pitch that only the very best possess. He spent the majority of his career at Central Cordoba and Rosario Central, both in Rosario, both (mostly) in the Second Division, and never sought anything more. But that didn't stop his legend growing. He was paid a bonus for every nutmeg. He was paid extra for every double nutmeg; slipping it through the defender's legs and, as they turned, putting it back through again. Usually, this would be followed by a sublime 40 yard pass to an open teammate. It delighted the home crowds, who cried out for more and more, and drew in fans that wanted to see The Fork do his thing. To add to the mystery, nobody seems to know where his nickname came from.

Growing up in 1970s Rosario, football was everywhere, and it was easy to become obsessive. It's the cauldron that shaped Marcelo Bielsa, but it was Carlovich who made him dream. For four years, in his childhood, he went to every possible game to watch his local hero. Ironic for someone famous for such a frenetic style to idolise a player who seems never to have played at anything more than a walking pace. A player so good that he never had to. And Bielsa wasn't the only one entranced by the Second Division magician.

The national team wanted him, but he didn't want to travel. AC Milan wanted him, but he had the same problem. A number of French clubs came calling, but none were willing to relocate to Rosario, so he declined them. Realistically, he might have struggled in a more professional atmosphere. He turned up late for training, when he turned up at all. He forgot to go to matches so often that the team coach used to detour to his house to pick him up. And as Argentinian football started to focus on fitness and physicality, he refused to change. He only played two games in the top flight. But he wouldn't have said his lack of professionalism cost him anything. He was exactly where he wanted to be.

After rejecting another call up for the 1974 World Cup, Argentina arranged a friendly with a representative team from Rosario. It was supposed to be a confidence builder, the best of Argentina against players who hadn't made the cut. But not for Carlovich. He came alive, at his brilliant best, and spent 45 minutes destroying the national side. He barely moved all game, and yet no defender could get near him. At half-time, with the score 3-0 to Rosario, the national team manager Vadislav Cap begged for him to be taken off. He was, and the game finished 3-1.

It was probably the highlight of Carlovich's career, but he shrugged it off and went back to doing his own thing. His was a career of brilliance, but never the kind of recognition it could have been. Jose Pekerman, Argentina manager at the 2006 World Cup, called him the greatest midfielder he had ever seen. Cesar Luis Menotti, who won their first ever World Cup, described him as a kid whose 'unique toy has been a ball since they were born.' One suspects he saw a kindred spirit. Pele even invited Carlovich to join him in New York. As always, he declined.

When Diego Maradona signed for Newell's Old Boys in 1993, a journalist asked him what effect having the greatest player of all time would have on the region of Rosario. 'The best footballer has already played in Rosario', he replied, 'and his name is Carlovich.' Years later, El Trinche presented him with a shirt.

Enjoy the game.

THE HISTORY OF STANWAY ROVERS FC

Records show that the current Stanway Rovers reformed on Tuesday 10th July 1956. However local newspaper cuttings tell us that there was a football club operating in the Stanway area in the early 1900's.

We were accepted into Division 2 of the Colchester & East Essex League, and by 1960 we had gained promotions to the Premier Division.

In 1967/68 the Rovers won the Colchester & East Essex League, and the 1973-74 season saw Stanway Rovers enjoying their most successful season to date when they won the League title and all the other competitions trophies.

1975-76 season saw the first team join the Essex & Suffolk Border League playing in Division 1.

In 1979, the 'home' of the Rovers was subject of discussion with the Local Authority, who agreed to lease the Club 4.6 acres of land in New Farm Road for a 99 year period. Stanway Rovers finally had its own home – and the first wooden Clubhouse was opened on 18th November 1982, carrying the name of The Hawthorns after the shrub which grew prolifically in the area at the time.

Despite failing to receive a grant from the National Lottery, the Club finished the rebuilding of its current Headquarters at the Hawthorns – the Members Bar, Committee/Board Room and the Hawthorn suite of function rooms being officially opened on 28th March 2001 by Colchester MP Bob Russell.

In November 2003 Jim McIntyre was appointed Manager with Ian 'Dan' Daly joining him assistant a few months later They set about assembling a good squad of players and after 14 seasons in Division One, in 2006 the Rovers were crowned Division 1 Champions and promoted to Step 5 for the first time in our history where we have remained ever since

The 2017-18 season saw major changes take place with the departure of the Chairman and the FA decision to move the club to the Essex Senior League.

A new management team of Fisher and Jones took charge of the team but following the appointment of a new Chairman, in the form of Dave Jones, Angelo Harrop returned to the club as Director of Football and he and Jones appointed a new manager; Terry Spillane. Spillane guided Rovers to safety before leaving the club.

The 19-20 season heralded a new era under Danny Slatter and a return to the Eastern Counties league but unfortunately both the 19/20 and 20/21 were aborted due to the COVID 19 pandemic.

The 21/22 season saw the club move sideways back into the Essex Senior League under the continued leadership of Chairman Dave Jones and Manager Danny Slatter. At the beginning of the 2022/23 season Dave Jones stepped down and remained as Trustee, Kev Mather took the role as Chairman moving forwards.

The 2023/24 season sees Michael Pulford return as assistant manager joining Karl Duguid and Stuart Nethercott in the dug out.

ESSENTIAL READING FOR FOLLOWERS OF THE NATIONAL GAME

YOU can't beat a good feel-good story and Alex Fletcher's return to playing football certainly is one.

You may remember the 24-year-old was involved in a shocking incident last November while playing for the Romans against Dulwich Hamlet.

Fletcher collided with a perimeter wall during the game and had to be rushed to hospital where he spent five days in a coma.

Recovery has been long and arduous. He even had to learn how to walk again. But there were plenty of people in his corner with messages of support from across the game, including England manager Gareth Southgate and new Fulham signing Raul Jimenez, who himself suffered a serious head injury.

For us on the outside it's almost impossible to imagine what a tough period it has been for Fletcher. We all read about the incident at the time, then heard of his recovery, but the hours away from the spotlight getting ready to come back with the support of his club must have gruelling. That's why it's so nice to see.

In last week's NLP, Fletcher told Bath City reporter — and NLP Step 2 results guru — Mark Stillman about his road back to the pitch, one he was determined to make.

And he did just that a fortnight ago, coming on as an 85th-minute substitute for good friend Cody Cooke. It was a poignant moment for Fletcher, his family and all at the National League South club.

"It was a bit emotional getting back out there," said Fletcher. "I can't really describe the words to say how it felt. It was goosebumps.

"I've played the situation so many times over in my head, just being here again. For it to finally happen felt surreal.

"The reception I got from everyone in the ground, including the Hampton players, meant so much to me.

"I've got over that hurdle. It's a massive milestone reached for me and now it's about building my minutes up but not rushing it, it's important for my body that I don't do that."

Jerry Gill's side have started the season well as they look for a return to Non-League's top flight.

Fletcher, who now wears a protective headband, added: "Hopefully I can start putting myself in contention for what's been a great start to the season though it might be tough as we've got such good attacking players, which can only be good for the team."

Good for Bath but also good for Alex. It's great to see him back doing what he loves.
